LPAZ Association

LPAZ Association has been developing several operational, cultural and academic initiatives in order to study and promote the aeronautical patrimony and heritage of Santa Maria Island and the Azores, in the Atlantic context, in its several matters. Among these initiatives is the commemoration of the Civil Aviation International Day as well as the following:

- LPAZ Conference – "2014: Aviation Challenges" (May 2014);
- LPAZ Conference – "Aviation and Transatlantic Relations: from the first crossings until ICAO (December 2014);
- Conference Aviator - Writers, Writers – Aviators (September 2015);
- Conference Aviation – The impact on Time and Space (September 2017).

LPAZ has also been promoting cultural trail-walks, an Aviation Cinema Film Show and photographic and documental exhibitions.

Recently, LPAZ, has inaugurated The Santa Maria Airport Historic, Cultural and Patrimonial Tour. The purpose is to promote the historical built heritage in the area surrounding Santa Maria Airport from the time of the construction of the American Air Base to present day.

The tour consists of 21 landmarks indicating places of interest from Vila do Porto Harbor to the entire residential area of Santa Maria Airport.

LPAZ Association has worked with the support and collaboration of academic institutions as the University of the Azores, the Center for International Studies of the ISCTE – Instituto Universitário de Lisboa, Professor Alan P. Dobson, from Swansea University, the Center for Compared Literature Studies Margarida Losa, from the University of Oporto, and the Portuguese Association for French Studies (APEF).

Over these initiatives, LPAZ has relied on the support and participation of the following institutions: ICAO – International Civil Aviation Organization, supporting the Civil Aviation International Day commemorations; The ANAC – Portugal's National Aviation Authority; The Government of the Azores, through its Presidency, Cultural Department, and Transports Department; the Santa Maria's Vila do Porto Municipality; NAV Portugal, ANA Aeroportos de Portugal / VINCI Airports; and SATA Group, through SATA Air Azores, Azores Airlines, and the CFAA – Azores Aeronautical Training Academy.

These events, as well as others, are published on the annual LPAZ Magazine on this link: https://issuu.com/associacaolpaz. The texts from the Conference Aviators – Writers,

Writers – Aviators, in co-organization with APEF and with the support of ANA - Aeroportos de Portugal, were published at the publish house Le Manuscrit, Paris.
